

THE J. EDRIDGE TAYLOR FOUNDATION
Mold Young Minds • Strengthen Families • Build Communities

Youth Leadership and Success Institute (YLSI)

Who: Boys and Girls Grades 1st through 12th
(In Collaboration with Upward Bound for 9th-12th)

Where: The historic Los Angeles Southwest College (LASC)

When: 1st and 3rd Saturdays October 2010 through June 2011

Time: 8:45am – 1:30pm Cost: Scholarships Available

Description: In a nutshell, Gang Prevention and Academic achievement through Self Esteem building, Civic engagement development and Dream attainment; while preparing Students to be College Bound!

Academic Support: Students will be tutored in Math, English, and Social Science in a way that will keep them enthusiastic and focused. They will have access to computers as well! FYI! Students must bring their homework and books for studying a must!

Faith building: Faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. Having Faith in something greater than you!

Financial Literacy: We want Students to understand that one of the paths to success is being able to understand how money works. We will teach them about checking, savings, budget, credit cards, insurance and money management, as well as, what goes into making wise money choices.

Communication-leadership skill building: Encouraging and guiding our Students to overlay the language of the streets with the language of networking and business. We will teach them on how to handle difficult situations. Also, we will coach to mastery of essay and speech writing and how to give oral presentations. In addition, we will impart; social, personal and etiquette skills. Featuring: Toastmasters!

Also included: Health Wellness, Breakfast and Lunch!

Contact us - Call: 323-242-9156

Email: jt@thefoundation.org

Please send Donations/Mail to:

JET Foundation Inc.

P O Box 488 Hawthorne, CA 90250